

Foreword

Technology waits for none much like time & tide. Civilization has to keep pace with the technological development to be on the forefront of economic growth. Synergy Institute of Engineering and Technology has realized this need and is in the forefront of training its students for such challenges. At Synergy, the team of faculty, students and other staff members are determined to impart the latest technological knowledge through digital mode of teaching and learning process. I am happy to see the new incarnation of Synergy Newsletter "DARPAN" under the guidance of our new Principal. It shows images of the events and changes that have taken place during the last quarter. I congratulate the entire team of editorial staff and reporters of "DARPAN".

Looking at 'Darpan' .....

Synergy has witnessed tremendous changes in all sphere of development from infrastructure, faculty resources to input quality and the improvement in academic and research ambience. Team Synergy comprises its 106 strong dedicated faculty and 103 non-teaching staff and more than 1700 student community which together is the biggest human resource asset.

Next year Synergy is going to celebrate a decade of service to the society. The preparations for celebration are more of academic and research endeavours rather than fun & frolic.

"DARPAN", the mirror, reflects what the synergians are at SIET. The new design and context setting of the newsletter, it is hoped, will be more appreciated. Darpan has another virtual image its e-newsletter which is accessible at the institute website. The contents of the Darpan take its readers through a whirlwind tour of the campus events. Synergy Students and alumni are particularly requested to keep themselves abreast on the development of their institution through it. May I, in this column, call upon the entire Synergy community to be a part of its growth process by contributing in whatever manner possible!

Let us get connected because networking leads to growth.

Alumni speak

After my graduation from Synergy Institute of Engg and Tech. I was posted as TRAINEE OFFICER at LARSEN AND TOUBRO LIMITED. RELIANCE PETROLEUM PROJECT, JAMNAGAR.

I am thankful to all the staff members and friend of SIET to share their lovely moments. To my juniors my loving message is always be confident and positive in whatever work you do. Understand the difference between NEED AND WANT. And make your "NEED" your "WANT"

I got to know form different sources about the development at Synergy. I am also finding many Alumni of Synergy over here working at various prestigious organizations which gives me immense pleasure. I will be privileged if the institution finds me eligible for any kind of help in future. We are trying to form an Alumni Chapter here.
